

Descendants of Thomas James Carter

Generation No. 1

1. THOMAS JAMES<sup>2</sup> CARTER (UNKNOWN<sup>1</sup>) was born 25 Mar 1785 in North Carolina, and died Bet. 1851 - 1859 in Clarke Co., Mississippi. He married ELIZABETH MOSELEY 24 Mar 1806 in probably South Carolina. She was born 25 Jan 1787 in South Carolina, and died 07 Nov 1856 in Clarke Co., Mississippi.

Notes for THOMAS JAMES CARTER:

(A family Bible record gives the birthplace of Thomas James Carter as born in North Carolina and Elizabeth Moseley as born in South Carolina. This is corroborated by the 1850 Census. The bible purported to have belonged to William John Carter has been passed down from William John to Elisha Schroebele to Theophilis James Gabriel to Warren Elisha to his daughter Lillian Sackett. Three names are listed as possible brothers to William John Carter: "Ben, Elisha Henry and Frank".

The father of Thomas James Carter is currently unknown. He should show up on the 1790 NC, TN or SC Census since Thomas James Carter supposedly was born March 25, 1785 in North Carolina. Need more information to narrow it down. The Carter Y-DNA Project (www.carter-cousins.org) shows that my Y-DNA is closely linked to Group 1 as I'm Kit #18343. Those Carter's seem to have been in New Jersey in the 1720's and migrated down to western NC and eastern Tennessee. I'm trying to get others in this line to take the tests.

(In the 1850 Mississippi Census, Clarke Co. where Thomas James Carter was living, a Martha Carter, age 92 died of "Old Age" in April 1850. She was born in NC. She's a possibility as the mother, aunt or relative of Thomas James Carter.)

1810 Census, Darlington Co., SC, page 12:

Email from Robert Carter: "In Alabama we did find initial information for a land purchase recorded by Thomas James in July 1825 at the Cahaba Land Office (Cahaba was the state capital at the time). [1825 was earlier by a year or two from any date we had previously.] Further research is necessary to pinpoint the exact location of the land and their place(s) of residence."

1 Male 40-49 (Thomas Carter would be 55, so this should be 50-59. Could have been put in the wrong column by the census taker.)
1 Female 10-14 (born 1826-30) (Mary Elizabeth Carter)
1 Female 15-19 (born 1821-25)
1 Female 20-29 (born 1811-20)
2 Females 50-59 (Elizabeth Moseley Carter would be 53, Sarah Carter would be 58)
("Wm J Carter" and "B M Carter" are on the same page of the census, while "George Carter" (age 50-59) is on the next page and could be a relative as he was born in NC too. "Wm P Carter" was a couple of pages away. Erasmus Carter was in Barbour Co., AL.)

(Clarke County, Mississippi was formed in 1833 as a result of the 1830 Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek and the Choctaw Cession of 1833.)

A Thomas Carter bought land near Shubuta Creek, Clarke Co., Mississippi from the General Land Office in :

Emails from Robert Carter: "In Meridian and Jackson we also found some minutes for Buckatunny Baptist Church, located in Clarke County (the spelling now changed to Buckatunna, the name of a major creek nearby) and discovered that Thomas James, wife, Elizabeth, sister Sarah Carter and two other Carter's joined the church in Jan. 1842 by letter. Those two were Rebecca S. Carter and Elijah M. Carter, perhaps two children of Thomas James. It should be noted that Ebenezer Church at Causeyville and Buckatunny Church over the line in Clarke County were only a matter of 6 or so miles apart (which we didn't know at the time of the trip).

Erasmus L. Carter and wife, Margaret L., were charter members of Ebenezer Baptist Church. Benjamin M. Carter and wife were also named as members of Buckatunny Baptist Church. An estate record for the father-in-law of Thomas K. Carter made reference to several of these Carter's. There was a reference elsewhere from Mont Rose Baptist Church records that Thomas K. first joined a Salem Baptist Church in Lauderdale County."

"I feel quite comfortable with Benjamin M. and James B. (being sons of Thomas James Carter) because of being named "Uncles" by William John Carter in a letter to his son."

"We know that Elijah Milburn moved to Texas. Somewhere there is a note that he had a brother that also moved to Texas. From the notation in William John's letter of "Uncle B. M.", I believe Benjamin M. did go to Texas. There is some indication that James B. moved from Ouachita (Nevada) County to another county in Arkansas, but I don't know for sure or where. "

1850 Census, Clarke Co., Mississippi, page 184, taken 8 Oct 1850:

THOMAS CARTER 65 M Farmer NC

Elizabeth " 63 F SC

Sarah Carter 68 F NC

(Sarah is a sister of Thomas Carter.)

(In the 1860 Arkansas Census, Ouachita Co., Missouri Township, page 34, Sarah Carter (says 70, but probably 78) shows up living with James B. Carter and next door to Benj. J. T. Carter, who is my Great, Great, Grandfather.)

Notes for ELIZABETH MOSELEY:

Additional research needed to prove that this is her family:

"John Moseley", Laurens Co., SC, 1790 Census, p. 72:

2 males 16 or over

Generation No. 2

2. WILLIAM JOHN<sup>3</sup> CARTER (THOMAS JAMES<sup>2</sup>, UNKNOWN<sup>1</sup>) was born 08 Mar 1812 in South Carolina, and died 09 Oct 1885 in Bluff City, Arkansas. He married REBECCA MEADOR 04 Nov 1832 in Dallas Co., Alabama, daughter of JOHN MEADOR and JEMIMA. She was born 15 Apr 1814 in Macon, Georgia, and died 21 Jul 1869 in Bluff City, Arkansas.

Notes for WILLIAM JOHN CARTER:

Decater Hawthorne baptized William John and Rebecca into the Mount Pleasant Church, Dallas Co., Alabama in 1835.

They moved from Dallas Co., Alabama to Lauderdale Co., Miss about 1837 as he was on the tax rolls 1838-46. W. J. was ordained a deacon in 1843.

In the book "MEADOR Genealogy and Related Families" by Elloene Moore McBride, 1987, p. 19:

"Benj. John Thomas' parents: (from Ed Duncan who wrote that it was info. taken from his Uncle Polly's family Bible - Uncle Polly is William Clarence Carter) and from "my grandmother's own mouth.") Benjamin F. Carter==m. == Jane _____".

(Ray Carter has the bible of Wm. J. T. Carter and no information on Benjamin Carter is in it. As far as I can tell from checking with my two cousins, our Grandfather William C. (Polly) Carter did not have another family bible as they don't have it either.)

From Robert Carter email on July 3, 2004:

" B.M. and Jane were granted letters of dismission in October 1841. In Buckatunny Baptist Church he is usually referred to as B.M. but in one instance as Benjamin M. In a letter in 1883 from William John Carter to one of his sons, reference is made to your Uncle B. M. and Aunt Jane. "

From Robert Carter on July 25, 2004:

"July 1841 - B.M. Carter was received into Salem Baptist Church, Lauderdale Co. MS by experience.

August 1841 - Jane Carter was received into Salem Baptist Church, Lauderdale Co. MS by experience (at same time as E. L. Carter, Rebecca S. Carter, E. M. Carter and T. K. Carter).

October 2, 1842 - "B.M. Carter and Jane, his wife," were dismissed by letter from Salem Baptist Church. .

April 1844 - Benjamin M. Carter was a delegate from Buckatunny Baptist Church, Clarke Co. MS to Ebenezer Baptist Church, Lauderdale Co. MS to help them settle a dispute. (Evidently he and his wife joined after leaving Salem Baptist Church in 1842.)

February 1848 - Benjamin M. Carter and wife granted letters from Buckatunna Baptist Church. (spelling of name "corrected" in 1847).

September 1848 - B. M. Carter delegate from New Hope Baptist Church, Clarke Co. MS to the Liberty Baptist Association.

September 1849 - B. M. Carter delegate from New Hope Baptist Church, Clarke Co. MS to the Liberty Baptist Association.

New Hope Baptist Church, northwestern Clarke Co. MS (north of Enterprise)
Liberty Baptist Association, made up of churches in Lauderdale, Clarke, Newton, Jasper Counties, MS and Choctaw and Sumter Counties, AL

Sources are Buckatunny Baptist Church Minutes (summary) found in the Meridian and Lauderdale County Library, Meridian, MS; Salem Baptist Church Minutes (edited edition) and Liberty Baptist Association Minutes, both found in the Clayton Genealogy Library, Houston, TX. Churches have been mapped on the Internet.

Note 1: Churches held "conference" on the Saturday of a two day preaching weekend by the itinerant pastor. I grew up in Arkansas with that kind of arrangement at Emmaus Baptist Church. Conference was "left open" in order to include new members received on Sunday, etc. As the abstract editor of one set of "minutes" indicated, sometimes these "extras" inadvertently did not get recorded in the minutes, though added to the church roll.

William John wrote, in 1885, to his son, Benjamin John, who was living in Texas, and asked him to give his regards to "your Uncle B. M. and Aunt Jane" who must evidently have also been in Texas. I have found a B.M. Carter and wife Jane in the 1880 census in Navarro County, Texas. That is two counties east of Hood County where Benjamin John was living. That B. M. Carter was age 66, which would put his birth year at 1814. It would fit with the 1840 Lauderdale Co. MS census. It would also mean that the two children missing from Thomas James' listing that year (1840) were William John and Benjamin M. who had their own households. That would leave Erasmus L. as perhaps a nephew, not a son. It would also leave the door open for Thomas Kervin to be the one son born between 1815-1820. This of course does not reconcile the age difference of Benjamin (and Nancy) in 1850 in Clarke Co. MS. [Perhaps the census taker there was bad at math since we seem to have several problems with ages that year in that location.]

Note 2: So where did Benjamin M. and Nancy Jane go from 1850 to 1880? If he was a son of Thomas James and Elizabeth, wonder if his middle name was Moseley. Recall Andrew Moseley Carter, the son of Benjamin J.T.

Note 3: The William P. Carter that shows up in Lauderdale Co. Census was a well known preacher. He first came to Lauderdale Co. from Smith Co. MS and was pastor of several Baptist Churches, most notably Oakey Valley Baptist Church at Bonita (now Meridian suburb), the forerunner of First Baptist Church, Meridian. There is no indication of any relationship to our Carter's, except in church settings. "

Notes for NANCY JANE MEADOR:

Referred to in Will of John Meador in Dallas Co., AL as "Jincey". (Maybe misread from "Nancy"?)

Email from Robert Carter on July 3, 2004 about their research trip to Mississippi:

"The wife of B. M. Carter (Benjamin M.), is given in a large book on Carter's in the Mississippi State Archives, as Nancy Jane Meador, youngest sister of Rebecca Meador Carter and Andrew Jackson Meador. In the Salem Baptist Church minutes she is referred to as Jane Carter. B.M. and Jane were granted letters of dismission in October 1841. In Buckatunny Baptist Church he is usually referred to as B.M., but in one instance as Benjamin M. In a letter in 1883 from William John Carter to one of his sons, reference is made to your Uncle B. M. and Aunt Jane. The name "Jency" (Jincy) or "Pency" seems to come from a misreading somewhere of "Nancy" that then shows up in the Meador book by Ellone Moore McBride. If the above is correct, she would be an Aunt of Sarah Suzanne Meador, Benjamin John Thomas Carter's wife. "

Children of BENJAMIN CARTER and NANCY MEADOR are:

17. i. BENJAMIN JOHN THOMAS<sup>4</sup> CARTER, b. Abt. 1836, Alabama; d. 18 Oct 1862, White Sulphur Springs, Ark..

4. THOMAS KERVIN<sup>3</sup> CARTER (THOMAS JAMES<sup>2</sup>, UNKNOWN<sup>1</sup>) was born 13 Apr 1819 in South Carolina, and died 08 Aug 1881 in Clarke Co., Mississippi. 5. ELIJAH MILBURN<sup>3</sup> CARTER (THOMAS JAMES<sup>2</sup>, UNKNOWN<sup>1</sup>) was born 28 Feb 1823 in Dallas Co., Alabama, and died 09 Feb 1895 in Flint, Smith Co., Texas. He married LUCRETIA ELLEN ATWOOD 01 Mar 1842 in Clarke County, Mississippi, daughter of ABRAHAM ATWOOD and MARY GOLDMAN. She was born 20 Nov 1823 in Mississippi, and died 22 Jan 1908 in Flint, Smith Co., Texas.

Notes for ELIJAH MILBURN CARTER:

Moved to Lauderdale County, MS in 1837. In 1851 they moved to Panola County, TX and then to Smith County, TX in October 1851. Bought 320 acres in Smith County, Texas near Flint, Texas. Was a traveling Baptist preacher as well as a farmer.

He was ordained to preach the Gospel at the Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church on Nov. 1, 1862. He was considered a "Hard Shell" Baptist. He served 20 churches throughout the county including Antioch Baptist Church.

He had a genetic disorder called CMT (Charcot-Marie-Tooth) that was passed on to some of his children. This is a Neuromuscular heredity disease. He had to preach from a chair or from the wagon when he was traveling because the disease was very crippling.

Notes for REV. BENJAMIN JOHN CARTER:

Was in Missouri Twp, Ouachita Co., AR in 1860 Census, age 21, as "Benj. J. Carter".

Joined Pleasant Grove Baptist Church 17 Nov 1860. He was liberated to preach 11 Jan 1868 and ordained May 1870.

Volunteered into Co. C, 12th Regiment, AR Infantry in 1861. Was captured at Port Hudson, LA 9 July 1863 and paroled from there 12/13 July 1865. He fought through the war without a wound.

Edward Laurence Carter wrote in his autobiography that the family came from Ark to Tx. in an oxcart in 1876, stopping "at Aunt Nancy Jackson's on the way."

From the Hood County Texas Genealogical Society webpage
(<http://www.granburydepot.org/z/biog/CarterBenjaminJohn.ht>):

"Benjamin John Carter was born in Mississippi April 23, 1839, the son of Deacon William J. and Rebecca (Meadors) Carter. Information is lacking concerning his conversion and baptism. At the beginning of the Civil War he enlisted in the Confederate Army and fought in many battles throughout the war. Although participating in many battles he was never wounded. Before the war was over all of his four younger brothers were in the service and all came home. Immediately after the close of the war he moved with his father's family to southern Arkansas, where he lived for the next ten years. On September 6, 1865, he was married to Miss Caroline Lewis, who also had moved with her father's family from Mississippi to Arkansas. Six children, four sons and two daughters, were born to this union, all but the oldest son living to adulthood.

B.J. Carter was licensed to preach January 11, 1868, and ordained to the full work of the gospel ministry May 29, 1870. The ordaining council was composed of Elders William Daniel, D.E. McGraw, John Aaron, and Deacon William J. Carter. He served as pastor of several churches in Arkansas until 1875. In 1875 he moved with his family to Hood County, Texas, where he spent the rest of his life, farming through the week and preaching on weekends. In 1887 he was elected Moderator of Paluxy Association and was elected several times after that. He presided as Moderator over seven sessions of the association. He was called from this life April 22, 1918 and was buried on his 79th birthday. At that time he was the only one of the original messengers who had never missed an annual session of Paluxy Association. His funeral service was conducted by Rev. M.M. Robinet. Rev. J.N. Chandler placed a chair by the casket and sat by the body of his long-time friend and co-laborer throughout the service. Together they had assisted in establishing many of the churches of Paluxy Association, and at different times each had served as pastor of many of them. Reverend Carter was buried in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in Hood County, Texas. SOURCE: Paluxy Baptist Association Centennial Story 1880 - 1980."

Notes for MONROE EDWARD HARVEY:

According to Harvey descendants, Monroe was a peg-legged schoolteacher who came into Ark riding a horse. He stopped at Center Point to spend the night, where he was hired to teach school. Center Point School was north of Chidester on the public road, now State Hwy 24, and south of the Reeder road intersection.

He and Martha raised their family in Ouachita Co. in a house located between White Oak Creek and the Nevada Co. line, a short distance off the public road and just before the Walthall house.

After the death of Monroe and Mary Frances (his last wife) Dick and Paralee (Starnes) Crowell moved in with the children and took care of them.

17. BENJAMIN JOHN THOMAS<sup>4</sup> CARTER (BENJAMIN M.<sup>3</sup>, THOMAS JAMES<sup>2</sup>, UNKNOWN<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1836 in Alabama, and died 18 Oct 1862 in White Sulphur Springs, Ark.. He married SARAH SUZANNE MEADOR Bet. 1854 - 1855 in Ouachita Co., Arkansas, daughter of ANDREW MEADOR and MARY BRUNSON. She was born 14 Jan 1837 in Jefferson Co., Ala., and died 06 Aug 1888 in Bluff City, Ark..

Notes for BENJAMIN JOHN THOMAS CARTER:

They were members of the Pleasant Grove Church of Christ Baptist.

The 1860 Arkansas Census for Missouri Township, Ouachita County, page 34, lines 35-40:

Benj. J. T. Carter	24	Male	Farmer	Born in Ala.
Sarah S.	23	Female		Born in Ala.
John T.	4	Male		Born in Ark.
Elizabeth	3	Female		Born in Ark.
Andrew M.	2	Male		Born in Ark.
Jiles M.	4/12	Male		Born in Ark.

They were living between James B. Carter and Andrew Jackson Meador (Sarah Suzanne's father) in the 1860 Census. Sarah Carter (70) was living next door with James B. Carter (31).

B. J. Thomas Carter served as a Private in Co. F, Arkansas 24th Inf, CSA during the Civil War. He enlisted on June 21, 1862 at Washington, Ark. for "2 yrs". Stationed at Camp White Sulphur Springs. Film Number M376 roll 4. (One version of his death is that he got the measles in the Civil War, was sent home, recovered, returned to camp, had to be out in the rain all day the first day of his return, relapsed with measles and died.)

In the 1880 Census, William John Thomas Carter, Elizabeth Jane Carter and Martha Louise Carter said that their father (Benj. J. T. Carter) was born in Mississippi and mother (Sarah Suzanne Meador Carter) was born in Alabama. Notice that in the 1860 Census he is listed as being born in Ala.

In the 1900 Census, William John Thomas Carter said that his father and mother were born in Mississippi. On the same census, his younger brother Jiles Marion Carter says his father was born in Arkansas and his mother was born in Mississippi, while Andrew Mosely Carter says his father was born in Arkansas and his mother in Alabama.

In the book "MEADOR Genealogy and Related Families by Elloene Moore McBride, 1987, p. 19:

"Benj. John Thomas' parents: (from Ed Duncan who wrote that it was info. taken from his Uncle Polly's family Bible (Uncle Polly is William Clarence Carter) and from "my grandmother's own mouth.") Benjamin F. Carter==m. == Jane _____. (Ray Carter has the William John Thomas Carter Family Bible and it doesn't mention Benjamin Carter at all.)

Notes for SARAH SUZANNE MEADOR:

Known as "Suke". Moved from Alabama to Arkansas about 1842 with her family.

The 1870 Census showed Sarah Suzanne and the seven children in one household in Missouri Township, Ouachita Co., Arkansas, page 350:

Carter S	32	F	Keeping House
John T	15	M	Works Farm
B J	12	M	"
Andrew	11	M	"
Marion	10	M	"
Lucindy	8	F
L	7	F
Luther	2	M

The 1880 Arkansas Census, Nevada Co., Union Township, page 546 showed Sarah Suzanne "Suke" Meador Carter, Elizabeth Jane "Betty" Carter, Mary Lucindy "Lue" Carter and Solomon Luther "Luke" Carter were living with William John Thomas Carter and his wife "Addie" Beavers Carter.

She was buried in an unmarked grave in 1888 by Elizabeth Jane "Betty" Carter Bradley in Bluff City, Ark. who was later buried next to her. Recently a marker was placed on her grave due to the efforts of Elloene Moore McBride and others.

The following listing for the Bluff City Cemetery: Carter, Sarah Suzanne Meador Jan. 14, 1837--- Aug. 06, 1888 O wife of Benj. John Thomas C.

He was a member of the Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, east of Mud Creek, that the members built for their families and faithfully attended until the day an organ was brought to the church. Abraham Carter did not believe in musical instruments in the church. He never attended a service after that, but each week he would question and discuss with his children what they had learned each Sunday. He was an avid reader and "discusser" of the Bible.

For many years he took the census in his area--on foot so as "not to miss any child." T. A. Carter donated part of his land for the first school built in the area, Myrtle Springs School. It was a one room building located on his daughter, Mary Lilla's, "part" of her inheritance, near the back part of Willie Cansas' lower pasture land, or about a mile east of the Flint Community Center that was built later. In 1898, about ten years or so after Myrtle Springs School was opened, a new school was built closer to Flint's town center, with five rooms and a music room. According to T. A. Carter's daughters, T. A. was a school trustee for the white and the "colored" schools. According to Mr. Jesse, one of the Lee Springs officials, Mr. Carter was the only school trustee that walked or visited to check on their school. The old Lee Springs

School is about four miles west of FM 346. It is on the "Old Palestine Road" west of Gresham.

He served in Company G, 9th Battalion Reserve Corps, Infantry, Texas Confederate States of America. The General (National) Organization of the United Daughters of the Confederacy has a Texas Division of its state organizations that has a chapter named and known as, Thomas Abraham Carter Chapter 2549, chartered in Flint, Smith County, Texas.
